Subject: Completion Letter for the Project CMIS No. 956.

Dear Zahid Ahmed,

This letter is in reference to the grants agreement CMIS Number 956, signed between Concern Worldwide and Azat Foundation on July 5, 2019, to implement the project titled "Rapid Response to Drought Affected Population in District Chagai" funded by the United States Agency for International Development's Office of US Foreign Disaster Assistance (USAID/OFDA), for the period starting July 15, 2019 and ending on October 29, 2019, with a total budget (RAPID Fund) of PKR 22,866,237/-. Under this agreement, Azat has provided 300 Metric Tons of Vanda, delivered 75 Livestock Management Sessions, Vaccination of 16,844 Livestock (with the support of livestock department) and Rehabilitation of Agricultural Dikes through provision of 4100 Tractor Hours benefiting 410 Small Farmers for drought-affected families in Union Council (UC) Dalbandin Saddar & Chagai, District Chagai, Balochistan Province, Pakistan. Azat has successfully completed the project and has reached 10,018 beneficiaries (individuals).

Please note that this completion letter does not indemnify the grantee from any complaints and/or report of fraud after the project has been closed. Concern reserves the right to investigate any such matter. Such complaints may be taken up with the grantee, if required. Concern reserves the right to sojourn future and/or current partnerships/projects based on the findings of the aforementioned investigation.

Please note that this completion letter is not to be considered a reference letter on behalf of Concern. Furthermore, this letter does not exempt the grantee from maintaining the project records for future audits, evaluation studies or post-project implementation monitoring visits deemed necessary by Concern and USAID/OFDA or their representatives.
